1. The airfield was east of TALLIN (24°05'E/59°26'N) Estonian SSR, between two roads, an old one leading north of the field to NARVA and a new one leading south of the field to LENINGRAD via NARVA. There was a railroad spur track at the field.
2. The following installations were available:
 - a. Two destroyed hangars
 - b. Four kasernes quartering from 250 to 300 EM
 - c. An assembly shop
 - d. A wooden cantonment building with an antenna rod.
3. In October 1949 the field was occupied by 25 to 30 single-engine fighters.

Comment:

25X1

It is assumed that the TALLINN-LASNAALA airfield is concerned. The report generally confirms previously reported observations covering 1948. From these observations it can be assumed that the field was occupied by a fighter regiment up to October 1949. According to another report covering a period of up to May 1949, the field was also used as a commercial airfield.
